

Does Your Money Get Away From You ?

Many people never would have anything at all unless it was bought on the installment plan. Some people are averse to doing this kind of business. Did you ever happen to think that large bank accounts and savings are all made by installments; if you want a certain article it is just as well to buy it on installment plan as to carry the money in the bank till you get the whole amount; you get no interest at the bank and we charge none on the installment sale.

ARIZONA SKETCHES—One of the very best works ever issued on Arizona has just come from The Graton Press, 70 Fifth Avenue, New York, and has for title "Arizona Sketches." The writer is Dr. J. A. Munk of Los Angeles, formerly a resident of Wilcox, Ariz., where he is still interested in a cattle ranch with his brother, Judge E. R. Monk, at one time connected with the land office at Tucson. Dr. Munk is, in all probability, the best historian Arizona has. For twenty years he has been collecting every book, pamphlet and written article bearing upon Arizona, till now he has a library of several thousand titles, every one of them bearing upon the Sunset Land he loves so well. "Arizona Sketches" is a goodly volume of 220 pages, with nearly 100 handsome illustrations. It sells for $2, with 20 cents postage added. With remarkable accuracy and in the most appreciative spirit, the author tells of Arizona as seen by an Arizonian, with charming details of scenery in its gorgeous southwestern colorings, with descriptions of personal trips on the deserts to the Grand Canyon and to cliff dwellings. He tells of the Indian, the cowboy, and the miner and presents them in truth though not robbed of romance. The book is one that should be in the hands of every one who loves Arizona, her scenery, people and history.

MERELY IN BAD COMPANY—A bunch consisting of Joe Coltsada, Hernandez Beltran, Jose Martan and Ramon Moreno were before Justice Johnstone charged with fighting. They had congregated at the home of Francisco Robles the night before and in some manner every man's hand was raised against some other man. The row would not have come to the notice of the authorities but for the circumstance that another man claimed that he had been robbed at this woman's house. He took Constable Proops back with him and when they arrived the fight was in its zenith. The four men were arrested, but Moreno though the bloodiest of the lot swore that he had taken no part in it. He showed that the gore with which he was covered was not his own. He said he was asleep on the floor when the fight commenced. The fighters made him the field of battle, limited the zone of hostilities to him and bled on him. That was all he had to do with it. Justice Johnstone was convinced of the truth of his statement and let him go. The others were sent to jail.

THE POWER OF STEAM.

Many May See But it Takes Genius to Realize.

When James Watt saw the steam causing the kettle lid to jump up and down he said "There must be power in that steam that it can lift such a weight."

There was. Millions prior to him had seen the same phenomenon and regarded it as an unexplained mystery.

THE ANTI-STATEHOOD FIGHT

The First Essential Thing is to Raise Money.

Chairman J. C. Adams of the Territorial Anti-Joint Statehood League is engaged in mapping out plans for the campaign against jointure. Obviously the first thing is a firm financial foundation. Quite a sum has already been raised but not nearly enough. Chairman Adams has appointed the following committee in the southern part of the territory for the raising of the shew of war: Walter Douglas, Epes Randolph, B. A. Packard and Marcus A. Smith. A collection committee for the northern part of the territory will shortly be announced. This county has not only raised some money but has done good work in the entertainment of the congressmen and senators who were here recently and at the same time making them firm friends of Arizona and affording them information regarding the territory which will be of great assistance in the approaching fight.

The money at first asked for will be in comparatively generous sums. After that a popular subscription will be called for, the minimum sum probably being not less than a dollar.

The further mapping out of the campaign will naturally depend largely upon the amount of money that can be raised. No plan will be adopted unless there is money in sight for the carrying out of it. It would be a waste of time, energy and money to enter upon a plan which would later have to be abandoned for lack of financial support.

The committee has written to senators and representatives who are friendly to the territory asking them to indicate to the league what is the best to be done to assist them in the fight.

Under the direction of Roy S. Goodrich there is being made a compilation of all the speeches made in previous statehood and anti-statehood fights, for and against this territory. These with all statistics and data will be put into the form of a campaign book for the use of the territory's champions on the floors of the senate and the house of representatives.

It will necessarily take some time to get the campaign well under way but citizens can rest assured that by the time congress convenes there will have been organized a much stronger opposition to the jointure proposition than the enemies of the territory now apprehend.

HARVEY HOUSE BURNED—It was learned last evening that the Harvey eating house at Ash Fork was totally destroyed by fire yesterday shortly before noon. The manner of the origin of the fire was not learned. The place was an important one in the Harvey house system and the largest between Albuquerque and the coast. The building was a frame structure of imposing size containing beside the dining room and kitchens a large office, a lunch counter and a second story devoted to hotel or lodging purposes.

DIVISION OF COMMAND

How Bates and Corbin Will Both Be Chief of Staff.

Washington, June 17.—An official announcement was made at the war department today that Major General John C. Bates and Major General Henry C. Corbin would successively serve as chief of staff with the rank of lieutenant general at the retirement of General Chaffee next April. General Corbin becomes of retiring age in September, 1906, and General Bates in August, 1908, but the present plan contemplates that General Bates, who will be the immediate successor to General Chaffee will be retired in advance of the regular time in order that he and General Corbin who will succeed him at the head of the army may divide the time between the retirement of General Corbin and the date of General Corbin's retirement equally.

Major General John L. Gillespie, assistant chief of staff was today placed on the retired list of the army at his own request. He will be succeeded by Major General John C. Bates. The war department also announced that Brigadier General John E. Story, chief of artillery, is to be promoted to the grade of major general and will be immediately retired and that Brigadier General George M. Randall, the ranking brigadier, will be promoted to fill the vacancy in the grade of major general. General Randall will be ordered to St. Louis to command the northern district. Colonel M. Mills of the artillery corps has been promoted to be brigadier general and chief of artillery. Col. Thomas C. Lebo of the Fourteenth Infantry is promoted to be brigadier general in place of General Randall, retired, and is succeeded by Colonel Aragon. Colonel M. Mills of the artillery office.
